FOOTNOTES

- A — Executives may be excluded by endorsement.
- B — Partners covered only if endorsed on policy. The following states require a notice of election form to be filed with the state: AL(WC 14), FL (DWC 251), IN, KS (D-WC 113), TN (I-4), UT.
- C — Sole proprietor covered only if endorsed on policy. The following states require a notice of election form to be filed with the state: AL(WC 14), FL (DWC 251), IN, KS (D-WC 113), TN (I-4), UT.
- D — Companies may elect to use this revision. Effective date is established by each company.
- E — Sole proprietorship or partnership with employees may elect coverage for the sole proprietor or partners by filing an election with the carrier. A notice of election is not required when the sole proprietorship or partnership has no employees. In such an instance, coverage is effected by obtaining a WC policy.
- F — Construction industry only (eff. 1-1-04), no more than three officers may elect to be exempt from coverage and each must own at least 10% of stock. Construction industry only (eff. 1-1-04), sole proprietor or partners are automatically covered and cannot opt out. Use flat amount shown or amount reported on IRS Form Schedule C.
- G — Partners in construction not electing to come under the law — use $400/week for any week or part of a week with jobsite exposure (eff. 4-1-91).
- H — Sole proprietor or partners licensed as sub and working under the direction of principle contractor is included at $500/month (A/R), eff. 7-1-99.
- I — Construction employments (eff. 10-1-99); refer to Rule IX-A-6-a(7) for the maximum remuneration of executive officers, and Rule IX-B-4-b for individuals and partners.
