FLORIDA WORKERS' COMP REQUIREMENTS AND EXEMPTIONS AT-A-GLANCE A Reference Guide for Insurance Agents

General Coverage Requirements:

1. Non-Construction businesses with 4 or more employees (counting both full-time and part-time) must have a workers' compensation policy. Owners/officers count toward this total unless they have an exemption.
2. Construction businesses with 1 or more employee (whether full-time or part-time) must have a workers' compensation policy. Owners/officers count as employees unless they have an exemption. If any portion of a company's operations is in a construction class code, the business is classified as construction. See below for the list of construction class codes.
3. Construction businesses are responsible for the workers' comp of their subcontractors. Contractors must ensure that any sub with employees has a workers' comp policy to cover those employees, even if the owner is exempt. Subs with only exempt officers and no employees must have valid exemptions. If any subcontractor has non-exempt employees and does not have their own workers' comp policy, the contractor hiring that sub will be charged premium by its insurance company to cover the sub's employees.
4. Officers who qualify can exempt out of workers' comp coverage by filing an online application with the Division of Workers' Compensation. Exempt officers are not entitled to workers' compensation benefits if they are hurt on the job.
5. Out-of-state employers must have a Florida workers' comp policy or an endorsement showing Florida coverage to cover Florida employees.
6. A Florida contractor who hires an out-of-state subcontractor must require the subcontractor to provide proof of either a Florida workers' comp policy or an endorsement to the out-of-state subcontractor's policy that lists Florida in section 3.A. of the policy. If the sub has neither of these, the sub's employees must be covered by the contractor's policy.

Coverage/Exemption Requirements for NON-CONSTRUCTION Businesses:

- A. Non-Construction businesses must have a workers' comp policy if they have 4 or more full-time or part-time employees (non-exempt officers count towards this total). If they have 3 or fewer employees, they are not required by law to have a workers' comp policy.
- B. Non-Construction Sole Proprietors/Partners are automatically excluded from workers' compensation coverage by law; no additional exemption is needed. They cannot be covered by a workers' compensation policy unless they file an election of coverage with the Division of Workers' Compensation.

C. Non-Construction Corporate Officers

1. Count as employees unless they have an exemption. No limit on the number of corporate officers who can be exempt at one time.
2. To qualify for exemption, officer must be listed on Sunbiz.org, and corporation has to be active on Sunbiz.org.
3. Exemption is free but must be renewed every 2 years.
